

Lily is an accomplished ballet dancer living on her families Island estate. She spends her days looking after her families affairs on the Island and hunting on her beloved Friesian, Calabos, with her two wolfhound companions. She spends her nights plagued by dreams of her abduction and death of her lover. The peace of the Island is interrupted, first by the terror of hell hounds, released to wreak havoc on the Islands inhabitants. And secondly, by Oliver, a visitor sent to the Island to stay out of trouble, who becomes the hound's first victim. Bit by bit her world starts to unravel. In her efforts to help the damaged Oliver, she sets up events that will lead them all to the brink of death. A gathering has been called. The family will converge on the Island and she will be forced to face the Matriarch. The nights events will determine the fate of all, her secrets will be exposed and she will be forced to choose between old love and new.
